

What am I doing now? Well, since January, 2016, when I began praying that after 16 years in the same house I would no longer have to live alone, God in His perfect timing allowed me to move from a two-bedroom, two-bath plus office to a one bedroom. God knew I would not fit into a studio! God provided me with a senior Christian facility replete with a chaplain on call, a library, fitness room, Bible studies, rides to shopping and to the airport—yippee! And this is what I love: we must eat in the dining room 10 times a month, which provides community as opposed to being isolated.

Furthermore, I have an opportunity here to share God's love, joy and peace to those who do not have the assurance of salvation and eternal life. Each day I thank God for how He gives me strength to continue at age 78 to travel with the Good News. I am still out three to four weekends a month, as well as many weekdays, and I am loving it! I take no pills of any kind (only vitamins) so now, in addition to going to Curves to work out every other day, I can go to our fitness room here in my new place.

I do spend time daily in God's Word so that I can be effective in the ministry God has called me to—I do treasure my time with Him! I signed a lifetime contract with God to complete the assignment he gave me more than 40 years ago. And when my life is over on this earth, when He calls me to the place He has gone to prepare for us, when the books are opened at the judgment seat, I want to hear Jesus say: "Well done, good and faithful servant, Miss Lillie. You finished well! Come on in, here is your crown. May I please have your hat?"
